

FINN DAM RASMUSSEN

Finn Dam Rasmussen, born 1947.

1967–72: Full time occupied as professional ceramist (potter). Had own ceramic studio and exhibition. Worked simultaneously in several other studios. Many gallery exhibitions and membership of 'Danish Arts & Crafts Association' (Dansk Kunsthåndværk).

1972–91: University studies in social science and ass. Professor in sociology at various Danish Universities.

1991–2007: Founder and director of 'Gallery Klassik', dealing with art and vintage Danish design.

1980–2007: member of a ceramic collective studio in Copenhagen, working there in my spare time.

Since 2007: Working full time with ceramics in my own studio in North Sealand. Creating unique works in stoneware and porcelain. I have my own show-room.

Since 2007: Participated in several censured exhibitions, group exhibitions and solo-shows in Denmark and Sweden. Summer 2012 and 2013 participated in Norway's largest censured ceramic market, 'Vilvinn' in Risør, Norway. Summer 2013 participated in 'Ovnhus', censured ceramic market in Denmark.

2011: member of the official local government exhibition network ('Kunstrunden') and member of the association of The Ceramists of North Sealand ('Nordsjællandske Keramikere').