

Mina Hosseinloy (born in 1994)

She is a contemporary fabric and kilim designer and weaver based in Iran.

She has studied fabric design in Tehran. (2013-2017) Her aim in this exhibition is to show one of the traditional arts of her country. As an artist, she has tried to use basic elements, which have deep meaning in Persian kilims, with new combinations and new colors.

She has eight years career as a designer and a weaver. Right now she manages a small group of weavers, which produce handmade kilims in small pieces. So far she has had two exhibitions in Tehran. (2014,2016)

All artworks in this exhibition are designed and woven by Mina Hosseinloy.
